Author-in-Residence Application

The Appalachian Memory Keepers Author-in-Residence Program seeks to identify and promote both published and unpublished authors writing about Appalachian history and culture. If chosen, the Author will submit 13 original, unpublished articles (minimum of 200 words each) and at least 1 accompanying photo per article that will be featured on a weekly basis on the AMK website and social media. Each Author-in-Residence will be eligible for a $250 stipend for their 13-week residency.

Terms of Agreement: If chosen, the Author-in-Residence agrees to electronically submit 13 original fiction or nonfiction stories to be published weekly during the selected quarter. All 13 articles and accompanying photos are due before the scheduled debut of the Author's residency. The Author-in-Residence retains copyright of their work, but grants Appalachian Memory Keepers the right without restriction to distribute any submitted articles via the AMK website and social media channels. This contract can be terminated by Appalachian Memory Keepers at any time.

Submission: Please mail this application, along with 2 original writing samples (min 100 words each) to the following address: Appalachian Memory Keepers, PO Box 34, Jefferson, NC 28640. Materials may also be submitted electronically by emailing to info@appalachianmemorykeepers.org.

Selection Process: All applications are evaluated by the AMK Board of Directors. All applicants will be notified by mail or email of whether they have been chosen as an Author-in-Residence.

Confirmation: All information included in this application is true, to the best of my knowledge. I am the sole author of this proposal and writing samples submitted for evaluation. If chosen, I understand and agree to the guidelines above.
